

As a concerned citizen who was under the impression that the airwaves belong to the people, I am appalled at the blatant partisan behavior of many broadcast news outlets, especially the Fox network and the Sinclair stations. Please do everything in your power to restore evenhanded political perspectives to America's broadcast outlets. The very future of democracy depends on it.